

'The Pragyotsav - Day-2'

Pragyotsav is a humble attempt on the part of K.P.S. Nehru Nagar to preserve the unique culture of India in the face of mounting westernization

After the grand opening yesterday the 2nd day of the competition i e, to day 10th Aug. 2017 saw various competition based on vocal music (classical) No electronic instruments except electronic tampered were allowed.

Renound Judges

Ms. Pratima Mohiti, the Gold Medalist in classical music from Khairagarh University & a Radio Artiste too, Mr. Naman Dutta the learned professor of classical music of Indira Vishwavidhyalaya and well human Doordarshan artiste Shri P.T. Ulla graced the occasion as the Judge.

Performers from various corners of Chhattisgarh has participated for the competition. The beauty of the performance pervaded the hushed atmosphere of the auditorium. The competition went on till the evening hour and by the end of the shows the audience felt a kind of inner peace and tranquility which would only be gained from having some unique experience

